

ABOUT US: wienXtra for young people wienXtra provides a varied leisure programme for young people: Concert tickets, media and music workshops, events as well as information and advice on issues such as habitation, relationship, working abroad for young people aged 13 to 26.

wienXtra works for the City of Vienna and in close cooperation with the Department of Youth.

wienXtra-jugendinfo

THE information centre for young Viennese people and visitors to Vienna under the age of 26. wienXtra-jugendinfo provides information and advice on everything young people are interested in – from internships to festivals. This is where you'll find the cheapest concert tickets in Vienna and all information about "Erasmus+: Youth in Action". www.jugendinfowien.at wienXtra-medienzentrum

Videos, photos, audio - the wienXtra-medienzentrum is THE place for to go for young and creative media experiments. Support and advice for media projects, equipment rental, editing suites, a video and photo studio – the services and facilities offered by the media centre are free for young people up to the age of 22. www.medienzentrum.at wienXtra-soundbase soundbase is wienXtra's music programme and offers everything a musician's heart could desire. Performance opportunities, a recording studio, feedback from professionals from the world of music, workshops, ticket sales without advance booking fees, info & tips on everything from location scouting to copyright. www.soundbase.at